Hon'ble P.C. Verma,J.

Sri Vijendra Paul, Secretary, P.W.D., Govt. of Uttaranchal appeared before this Court in person in compliance of order of this Court dated 03.6.2002. He submitted before this Court that though the petitioners have been allocated finally the State of Uttaranchal and they are eligible to be promoted in compliance of the Court's order in accordance with the provisions of the unamended rule applicable prior to 1997 with 25% (twenty five per cent) quota but sine the final allocation of the cadre is to be made by 31st July, 2002 and if any senior to the petitioners is allocated, his chance of promotion may be defeated on account of promotion of petitioners. Therefore, he sought time till 16th August,2002. Secretary, P.W.D. gave assurance that the petitioners and persons senior to petitioners allocated to Uttaranchal by 31.7.2002 finally shall be considered for promotion and their promotion shall be finalized by 16.8.2002.

In view of this statement, the contempt petition is dismissed. However, if any non-compliance is found the applicants are permitted to reinitiate the contempt proceedings against the respondents.
